Volunteers came out in droves on Sunday to help unload about 5,000 pumpkins for Trinity's Episcopal Church's annual pumpkin patch in Pass Christian. Most of these helping hands were students from Pass High's Beta Club, Pass High's Interact Club, Pass Middle School, the University of Southern Mississippi and youth from Trinity. Jessica Ellis, a member of the church, also brought young women from the University of South Alabama's Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. The pumpkin patch is located on Highway 90 between Henderson and Church Avenue.

DeLisle man nabbed for crack

Tip on stolen property leads to cocaine seizure

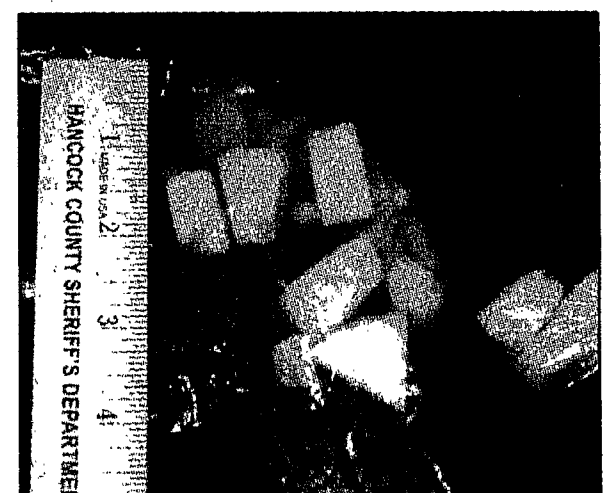

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

A DeLisle Community resident was arrested Tuesday and charged with possession of crack cocaine, according to Hancock County Narcotics Division Director Major Matt Karl.

A search warrant had been issued for an apartment in the Bay Park Apartments on Longfellow Road. This came about because of information received in search of items taken in a burglary in August, Sheriff's Investigator Tom Roan, who is handling the burglary case said Wednesday afternoon.

Ron Dedeaux, 22, DeLisle, was later arrested and charged with the alleged possession of drugs (crack cocaine) with intent to deliver. He was reported to be staying with a friend at the apartment. He posted a $25,000 bond at the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility, Agent Chris Russell, who is handling the drug case reported.

Pass man accused in bank robbery

THE SEA COAST ECHO
A Pass Christian man was arrested Monday, Sept. 29, by Gulfport Police and charged with robbing the Lyman branch of Hancock Bank. James Patrick Black, 36, allegedly fled the scene in a car from the dealership where he worked after robbing the bank at Mississippi 53 and U.S. 49. He was captured shortly after the employees reported the holdup. Reportedly, Black had a handgun, mask and an undisclosed amount of money in a bag when he was pulled over in a white Chevrolet Aurora, which officials believe belongs to the Gulfport car dealership where Black was employed. As of Wednesday, he was being held on a $100,000 bond at the county jail.

Bay St. Louis mayor Eddie Favre was the speaker at the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Coffee Call breakfast meeting Wednesday at Casino Magic. Favre said the city would be working to get a bill passed this year in the state legislature to allow a Local Option Sales Tax increase. If the measure passes the legislature, a local entity, such as a city or county, could call for a vote, which would require 60% approval for passage, of a special use sales tax. Favre said Bay St. Louis would be seeking a 3% sales tax hike.

WalkAmerica set Oct. 4 at BSL Depot

THE SEA COAST ECHO

The annual March of Dimes' WalkAmerica is set for Oct. 4 at the historical Train Depot in Bay St. Louis.

Participants raise money to further the March of Dimes mission, which is to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects and infant mortality through research, community programs, education and advocacy. Participants can earn prizes while helping the March of Dimes even though they may not wish to walk on Oct. 4.

Jill Seymour is the Hancock County WalkAmerica ambassador. Four-year-old Seymour was born premature at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans. March of Dimes is in the process of recruiting a "Premie" team. This team will be made up of Hancock County citizens and their families who were born premature.

Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre and Waveland Mayor Tommy Long will be in attendance. Other special guests include Bay High School AFJROTC, Bay High School Band, the Bay City Dancers, the Misfits Classic Car Club and Mrs. USA Melissa Linnette King.

The Waveland Fire Department will be on hand with its fire and weather safety presentation. CableOne, MediaCom and Hancock Medical Center are sponsors of the 2003 Hancock County WalkAmerica.

Registration for WalkAmerica begins at 8:30 a.m. The course for the 3-mile walk combines a beachside view with a stroll down Second Street, beginning and ending at the Train Depot. After-walk festivities include food, fun and prizes.

An award of special interest will be the school raising the most money.

The March of Dimes is a national voluntary health agency whose mission is to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects and infant mortality.

Founded in 1938, the March of Dimes funds programs of research, community services, education and advocacy to save babies and in 2003 launched a five-year campaign to address the increasing rate of premature birth.

For more information, visit the March of Dimes web site at www.marchofdimes.com.

Anyone interested in the "Premie" team or volunteering for Hancock County WalkAmerica may contact Kay Daneault at the Gulfport March of Dimes office at 228-896-0886.

Petition on bond proposal must go through process before put to vote

BY SHANNON JENKINS
Staff Writer

Several steps must be taken before a bond issue proposed by the Hancock County Water and Sewer District can be put to a vote.

Attorney Ronnie Artigues informed the Hancock County Board of Supervisors of this process during a Sept. 30 board meeting.

Artigues said the district and the registrar of voters would have to determine if there is a sufficient number of signatures on a petition filed by a group of county residents questioning the right of the water district to issue a revenue bond totaling $1,209,300.

If there were enough signatures, the district would have to inform the Board of Supervisors whether it plans to go forward with its project of installing a Phase 2 water system that would bring a centralized water service to the remaining unserved areas on the east side of Highway 603.

If the district does plan to proceed, Artigues said the Board would then set a special election.

The water district would be responsible for the cost of the election, and the people within the boundaries of the water district would be eligible to vote.

Stolen guns recovered, Kiln man charged with residential burglary

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

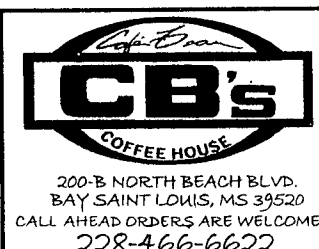

Numerous firearms were reported stolen on Aug. 30 from a Kiln residence and recovered this week, according to Hancock Sheriff Steve Garber.

"Jonathan McGill, 22, Kiln, was arrested and charged with residential burglary in connection with the missing firearms. His bond was set at $10,000. Firearms have been recovered too," Investigator Matt

Barnett, who is handling the case reported.

"Also a 16-year-old juvenile has implicated in the burglary and he has been turned over to Youth Court officials. We expect to make more arrests in the firearms case too," Barnett added.

Assisting in the investigation and arrest also included, Investigators Andre' Fizer and Tom Roan and Deputy Danny Gilkerson.

St. Rose de Lima fair set Oct. 3-5

This is the weekend for the 77th Annual St. Rose de Lima Church Fair in addition to silent auction.

The dates are Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 3, 4 and 5, and will be held at 301 South Necaise Ave., across from St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church.

Many of the Coast's most prominent artists will be represented this year.

The silent auction will all types of special items including New Orleans Saints memorabilia, hand crocheted bedspread, many items and gift certificates from local merchants.

As always, there will be some great foods, games, rides sweets, arts and crafts, etc.

Live Music from such artists as Relative Unknown, Bobby Allison, Angelina, Bo and Dee and others.

Food serving begins on Friday at 11 a.m. with fair activities from 6 to 11 p.m.; Saturday 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.; and Sunday 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

A parade is planned at 10 a.m. on Saturday and there will be beads and souvenir cuts.

We hope to see you at St. Rose's Church Fair and Silent Auction.

The touch of cool which began on Sunday morning really feels like football weather is here.

On Friday, three area high school football teams will be playing at home. They are Hancock High, Bay High and St. Stanislaus, while Pass Christian will be away.

Hancock's Hawks, 3-2, will play host to high flying undefeated Oak Grove, 5-0.

The Hawks by being at home could tarnish Oak Grove's record, but will have to play a flawless game.

The roaring Tigers of Bay High at 4-1 for the season, won a thriller last week by defeating Stone 40-37 in a double overtime high scoring game.

The Tigers this week face a very hungry Gautier in a District game.

The Rockchaws of St. Stanislaus at 2-3 for the season will play host to the Vancleave Bulldogs, 4-1.

Vancleave is strong this year and the Rocks could pull an upset victory by being at home.

Last Friday the Pirates of Pass Christian, 1-4 for the season lost a thriller to Gautier by one point, 12 to 11.

This week the Pirates will try to rebound when they travel to D'Iberville.

This is a time in high school football season when victories really count as most of the games are now District contests.

Bay High, St. Stanislaus and Pass Christian all are now in the second half of the season with only five regular games left to play.

Hancock which has a Nov. 7 visit to Hattiesburg on Friday will play game six of an 11-game regular season Friday.

On Friday night in Hancock County there should be stadiums full of Hawks, Tiger and Rockchaw fans, cheering their teams to victory.

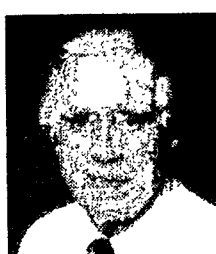

We hope to see you at the game.

Mississippi and the Big Tobacco ordeal

Unnoticed in the "tort reform" din, the state's highest court has slammed the door on any Mississippian recovering damages against Big Tobacco companies for the harmful effects of cigarettes.

A state Supreme Court decision in May which the court last week declined to rehear will be, as one tobacco company lawyer said, a "powerful" deterrent on future anti-tobacco litigation.

In reality, the ruling likely dooms 67 lawsuits now pending statewide against the tobacco industry. (Listen up, tort reformers: Things must not be as bad as you say they are in the state judicial system.)

The state Supreme Court by a 6-2 decision, had held that a Mississippi's 1993 Product Liability Law as amended in 2003, trumps all tobacco cases that are based on products liability.

In doing so, the high court upheld a 2002 Forrest County Chancery Court ruling dismissing on similar grounds a lawsuit against R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and others brought by relatives of Willie Lawrence Muse contending his wrongful death from cancer was caused by their product.

The state Supreme Court adopted what it called a "strict interpretation" of the Product Liability Law, holding that unless tobacco is altered in some way its inherent characteristics are not harmful. It concluded: State law "precludes all tobacco cases that are based on products liability."

This development becomes more significant since this state was where the monumental lawsuit brought by Attorney General Mike Moore six years ago recovered a multi-billion dollar settlement from Big Tobacco for state health costs from tobacco damages to its citizens.

Tobacco's settlement of the state's case in Jackson County Chancery Court set the pattern later adopted by other states to launch successful litigation against the industry. Some $1 trillion in tobacco settlements have been made.

Significantly, the Big Tobacco companies, who settled the Mississippi case rather than face a powerful lineup of expert witnesses and company whistle-blowers, could never appeal the case to a higher court.

Under its settlement, Mississippi is slated to receive $4.2 billion in payments over 25 years from Big Tobacco, a huge windfall to this cash-strapped state. State lawmakers dedicated

Historical Society approves of courthouse renovations

Dear Sir:

The Court House renovation is nearing completion. I toured the building this morning and was greatly impressed with the finished product.

The exterior is tastefully painted and trimmed appropriately for its style and age, and the new elevator tower is compatible and blends comfortably with the rest of the building.

Inside, I found the corridors bright and inviting. Most impressive are the two meeting chambers on the second floor. The larger courtroom is lavishly fitted with mahogany podium, dividers and jury booth. The room is beautifully lighted and are a real pleasure to enter. The second chamber was in use and I did not intrude but it appeared to be equally attractive.

As a neighbor, I am grateful for the additional parking spaces that have been created. While it is regrettable that this required the loss of some of the original planting and green-space, it is remarkable that at age 93 the building is still so beautiful and serves the city so well. We owe a special debt of gratitude to the Board of Supervisors.

History articles should be historically accurate

Dear Sir:

I am writing in regards to a story, "Miss Lois of Santa Rosa," which appeared in the September 7, 2003 issue of The Sea Coast Echo.

In the story Lois Thigpen Metzler states that, "we didn't have a high school because the Superintendent of Education, Kenneth McCarty, didn't want to spend the money to get one, ... so he had an old school bus, more like a cattle car, really, built to carry 32 kids to the Kiln High School. There was just an old wooden bridge over the river and only one car could pass. His 16 year-old son drove the school bus, and our parents never did know what a ride that was."

It is true that Kenneth McCarty was Superintendent of Education for Hancock County from 1932-1944, from 1960-1964, and from 1972-1976.

I am his only son, and I am

Telemarketers — do not call

On Sept. 24, 2003, a federal judge in Oklahoma made headlines by ruling that Congress had not given the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) the authority to implement the National Do Not Call List. This ruling was made on a suit filed by several telemarketing services and other U.S. companies who claimed the FTC did not have the authority to enact this much-needed list.

Congress quickly moved to give the Federal Trade Commission express authority to go ahead with the Do Not Call list. H.R. 3161, introduced by Representatives Tauzin, Dingell, Upton, and Markey on Sept. 24, was passed by the House on Thursday, Sept. 25. Five hours after the House vote, the Senate approved an identical bill with a unanimous vote. Congress had hoped to have the bill on the President's desk for his signature into law on Friday, Sept. 26, so that enforcement of the Do Not Call regulations could begin, as scheduled, on Oct. 1.

Unfortunately, the implementation of the Do Not Call list was thwarted again by a federal judge in Denver, who ruled that the government's effort to curb telemarketing calls was unconstitutional. According to the judge's decision, the FTC's exemptions for political parties, politicians, and charitable organizations imposed a "content-based limitation on what the consumer may ban from his home ... thereby entangling the government in deciding what speech consumers hear." The judge went on to state, "The First Amendment prohibits the government from enacting laws creating a preference for certain types of speech based on content."

Needless to say, I am greatly disappointed that this judge has ruled to deny the will of the 50 million people who have registered for the National Do Not Call list. And, if the exemptions from the Do Not Call list are preventing the enforcement of this measure, then I am in favor of legislation to add political parties, politicians, and charitable organizations to the groups prohibited from intrusive telemarketing calls. In fact, I am in favor of eliminating all unsolicited phone calls from any organization. When a family's dinner is interrupted, they probably see little difference between a telemarketer selling vinyl siding and a telemarketer soliciting donations for medical research.

I have always supported legislation to eliminate intrusive telemarketing calls, and I will continue to stand fully behind the authority of the FTC to help stop this annoyance. It is my hope that the FTC will challenge the Denver ruling on the Do Not Call list. There is legal precedent for government regulation of what lawyers call "commercial speech," and I believe the FTC and the American people will triumph if the ruling is appealed. I only regret that Americans will be denied the peace and quiet they deserve by this delay in the enforcement of the Do Not Call regulations.

I am baffled that telemarketing services and their representative associations, such as the American Teleservices Association, want to continue to disrupt the peace and invade the privacy of our own homes. If they could read the numerous letters and e-mails I have received over the years, I believe they would realize that their phone calls are causing more harm than good. One e-mail plainly describes this level of aggravation, "...is there no one in this country who can stop telemarketing calls? Can't sleep. Calls wake me up. Can't eat. Calls keep coming. Can't tell them to stop, because they don't understand those words...Please try to do something!"

A woman from Long Beach emailed me to express concern for her 80-year-old great aunt. Suffering from Alzheimer's disease, this woman had been accepting offers from phone solicitors. Her great niece had hoped to add her phone number to the Do Not Call list in effort to stem the tide of telemarketers who were taking advantage of her aunt's condition.

A former telemarketer emailed me to convey her disgust with the telemarketing industry, "I worked as a telemarketer for a year, and I will tell you that I learned some of their tactics and I don't feel like the public should have to deal with them. Once I was introduced to their unethical practices, I quit."

Other letters and e-mails plead for the simple right to eat a meal in peace, read to their children without disruption, or, in the case of a woman from Wiggins who works the night shift, a "good day's sleep." It is quite clear that this industry has disrupted our lives for far too long.

Until this issue is resolved, people can register for Mississippi's Do Not Call list. Established under the Mississippi Telephone Solicitation Act, the Do Not Call Registry went into effect on July 1, 2003.

You can register at www.ms.gov/psc/nocall/. For more information on the National Do Not Call List, people can visit www.donotcall.gov.

the bulk of the money to a health care trust fund, using earnings from the fund largely for Medicaid, and related purposes.

Somehow the fiction has been created by special interest groups and a political clique that Mississippi is the nation's cesspool of runaway juries and jackpot justice.

Strangely, in a state that not long ago was the graveyard for civil rights of black citizens, the term "civil justice" has gained currency among those preaching the need for clamping a tighter lid on damage awards in tort cases.

Politicians of a certain ilk, who do not have any progressive ideas of their own, have latched on to "tort reform" as a catch-phrase they invoke as the panacea for almost every state ill.

I heard even this green-horn Jackson banker Tate Reeves, the Republican candidate for state Treasurer, contend that tort reform is the underlying solution to keep children off the CHIP (Children's Health Insurance) program.

I seriously doubt a 29-year-old guy who may know something about stock options and hedge funds, has even a scintilla of comprehension of this state's immense need to extend health care protection to at least 85,000 Mississippi children who were without any health care coverage when CHIP began three years ago.

Since CHIP was implemented under Gov. Ronnie Musgrove, 59,000 children have been brought under it. Ironically, (for Reeves' benefit), if it were not for money the state received in the settlement of its tobacco lawsuit, it would have been unable to match federal CHIP grants.

Due to the national sick economy over the past two years, Medicaid authorities say latest estimates are that some 30,000 to 40,000 more Mississippi children are now left without any private health coverage and are eligible for CHIP.

This growth has come from children of working class families where parents have lost coverage because of being laid off from their jobs or their company insurance plans have been downsized.

In this political year, not only politicians, even newspapers, have been caught up by the drumbeat that poor little Mississippi needs so-called "tort reform" more than almost anything, including better health care, better education and public safety and the money to pay for them.

It goes unnoticed by the tort reform clique when a Hinds County Circuit Court jury recently returns not one penny of the $2 million an injured railroad worker sought for pain and suffering.

Or that some poor black fellow last year won a mere $60,000 judgment from a Washington County jury for having a scalpel left inside his abdomen during surgery by a Greenville medical group run by the then-president of the Mississippi Medical Association.

Now the state Supreme Court says in its ruling putting the kibosh to the late Willie Lawrence Muse's claim in Forrest County, that it was the "intent of the Legislature to abate the large volume of tobacco litigation."

Where's all this Jackpot

Justice that propagandists have been pounding into the heads of our citizens?

It's certainly not in Mississippi.

certain that I did not drive the school bus from 1936-1938 since I was born in 1935 and could not have been more than three years old at the time.

I do not know whether or not my daddy wanted to build a high school in the Santa Rosa community, but my guess is that, if possible, he would have since all his ancestors had settled in the area in the late 1830s and since his great-grandfather, Aaron M. Frierson, gave the land for the Aaron Academy school, a school which my father attended.

In 1936-1938 we were in the midst of the "Great Depression," when there were no jobs and no money and when people had a hard time paying their property taxes.

In fact, in 1932 one-fourth of all real property in Mississippi sold for taxes and reverted to the state. ("One-Fourth of a State Sold for Taxes," The Literary Digest, 93 (May 7, 1932), 10.)

It was a time when school teachers were paid with warrants (IOU's) that were redeemed when the county had the money to pay. I would be terribly surprised if there were any money in 1936-1938 to build a high school anywhere in Hancock County.

I have a Ph.D. in history from Duke University and taught history at the University of Southern Mississippi for 39 years until my retirement in 1999, after which I have taught part-time. I am well aware that memory is not always accurate to details; it is sometimes even faulty; and that when we reminisce about the past, we sometime enrich a story. Most of the time it matters little, but this time my father and I, in my opinion, have been inaccurately portrayed.

May I suggest that in the future if a person is treated in a negative way in an interview, you check with other sources before printing it.

Sincerely,

Cut-a-ton raises money for Hope Haven

Favre Forward Foundation also donates to shelter

BY SHANNON JENKINS
Staff Writer

Over $500 was raised last Sunday by the team at Plaza Hair Salon in Waveland for Hope Haven.

Salon owner Cindy Bowen organized the "Cut-a-Thon" which offered haircuts, facials, makeup and massages. All the proceeds — including tips — were donated to the children's shelter.

Participating cosmetologists included Jennifer Malone, Kendrick Cuevas, Carolyn O'Brien, Charlotte Schuette, Amanda Tallent and Bowen. Cordelia Ream, a massage therapist, also donated her services for the fundraiser.

"(Several) professionals gave up their day off to raise money for the children," said Terry Latham, director of Hope Haven. "That's terrific."

Officers from the Waveland Police Department were also on hand to give finger printing demonstrations. Latham said they also gave away bike helmets to children who attended the event. Kory Lawrence Productions provided music.

On Sept. 29, Hope Haven also received a donation from the Brett Favre Forward Foundation for $20,000.

"That was a lifesaver," Latham said.

Over 50 members of the Diamondhead AARP attended a Hancock County Sheriff's Department Triad Program which included a luncheon on Wednesday. A grant was received by the Sheriff's Office to provide safety tips for senior citizen groups. Speakers included Hancock Investigator Matt Barnett and Hancock Narcotic Division Director Major Matt Karl. The event was held at the Diamondhead Community Center. Senior citizen groups interested in receiving the program can contact Barnett at the sheriff's office at 467-5101 for further information.

"During my investigation, I received word there may be drugs in the apartment, so around 4 p.m. Tuesday, Narcotics Division Agents had been alerted and myself, Investigators Andre' Fizer, John Luther and Matt Barnett were joined by Narcotics Agent Director Matt Karl, Agents Chris Russell and Johnny Allison, in addition to Abe Long, who is on loan to CNET (Coastal Narcotics Enforcement Team," Roan said.

When serving the warrant, officers found no one at the apartment, but since they had a search warrant, received permission from manager to search the apartment, Roan said.

"Upon entering the apartment, Agent Long discovered approximately two ounces of crack cocaine," Agent Russell said.

Roan and Russell continued, "Upon further searching of the apartment a washer and dryer, some tools and other missing items were found. Agents also discovered a small amount of marijuana, digital scales and utensils used in the manufacture of crack cocaine."

Russell place the value on the crack cocaine between $3,000 and $4,000.

Both Roan and Russell said their investigations is continuing.

One arrested after 'Road rage' leads to bullet in tail gate

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

Back in August, a squabble at a Highway 90 business, led to a bullet fired at a pickup truck on Lower Bay Road, according to Sheriff Steve Garber.

John Luther, Sheriff's Investigator in charge of the case said, "Adrian C. Everidge, 18, of Kiln was charged with four counts of aggravated assault following his arrest Monday."

"Apparently a road rage incident happened on August 9. Everidge and another party got into a verbal squabble at a Highway 90 business. Then the other party went outside and apparent a fight occurred. Everidge left and went down the road and waited. As the truck passed with two male and two females in it, Everidge allegedly fire one shot from a semi-automatic handgun into the tail gate of the vehicle," Luther added.

Monday, the sheriff's department received information that Everidge was in a Bayside Park residence. With outstanding warrants Monday, September 30, Everidge was arrested by Lt. Tim Broder, Sgt. Jason Chandler, Deputy Bert Courrege and Deputy Todd Drummond, Luther said.

"Since Everidge was out on bond for an earlier statutory rape and drug possession charges, his bonding company came in and surrendered his bond. He is now lodged in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility without bond."

During the shooting at the vehicle, Luther said there was no injuries reported.

West Hancock V.F.D. earns Homeland Security grant

ECHO STAFF REPORT

Governor Ronnie Musgrove announced on Tuesday that the West Hancock Volunteer Fire Department will receive a $144,000 grant through the Department of Homeland Security. The grant will be utilized to acquire firefighting vehicles.

"We're really tickled to death with this," West Hancock Fire Chief Kim Jones said Tuesday. This will only be the second new fire truck the department has ever had."

It will also be the first new Class A pumper the community has ever owned, Jones said.

"Last year, we got a new reserve truck that we also received on a grant," he said.

"The funds will insure the West Hancock firefighters have the proper equipment needed to safeguard the people and property in the communities in which they serve," Musgrove said in a press release issued Tuesday.

The funds for the firefighting vehicles acquisition program will allow the fire department to purchase the following vehicles: Pumpers, brush trucks, tankers, rescue, ambulances, quints, aerials, foam unites, and fire boats.

Jones said the department must raise approximately 10 percent of the grant, or about $16,000, in order to purchase the new truck.

Little league softball meeting

Community-based restoration to begin at Mike's Island

THE SEA COAST ECHO

The Nature Conservancy on Tuesday announced the successful start of a community effort to restore Mike's Island in Hancock County. A $40,000 federal grant from the Gulf of Mexico Program will finance the planning of the community-based ecological restoration project.

In July, The Nature Conservancy purchased the 2,600-acre Mike's Island site that contains more than five miles of Pearl River frontage and virtually all of Mike's River and McCarty's Bayou. The site is famous for its hunting and fishing opportunities. Restoration will help improve the quality of water that flows through the watershed and into the estuarine sites of Lake Borgne and the Hancock County Marshes.

The project includes:

- Writing the ecological plan (according to the Society of Ecological Restoration standards),
- Establishing transects and monitoring plots at the site, and
- Hosting workshops for input from anticipated partners and volunteers.

Those invited to the workshops will include neighbors of Mike's Island, Hancock County leaders, local conservationists, Mike's Island Hunting Club members and representatives from a handful of federal and state agencies.

Discussions and presentations will cover the ecological importance of the site, restoration activities and timelines, and the long-term management of the site. The workshops will help the Conservancy incorporate community expectations and involvement in the final plan - scheduled to be released in January.

The Nature Conservancy is a leading international, nonprofit organization that preserves plants, animals and natural communities representing the diversity of life on Earth by protecting the lands and waters they need to survive. ## Lott: Almost $3M for projects in Jackson, Harrison and Hancock

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Federal funding totaling about $3 million is approved for separate projects impacting Jackson, Harrison and Hancock counties, including efforts to create a new emergency operations center in Ocean Springs and for a program to enhance law enforcement information access across the Coast.

"These are two very important projects for the Gulf Coast, and I was pleased to help secure this funding in the appropriations process for this fiscal year," Senator Lott said. "As Jackson, Harrison and Hancock counties continue to see development and additional growth, these projects will help enhance public services, specifically in the administration of law enforcement."

In FY 2003 Congress allocated continuation funding for the Tri-County Automated System Project (ASP). ASP is a multi-phased project administered by the University of Southern Mississippi to improve safety of citizens and public safety personnel. ASP is addressing the need to develop an infrastructure for the exchange of criminal justice information.

"I have been very impressed with the cooperation among the three sheriff's departments in this project thus far," Senator Lott added. "The success of this project depends upon good collaborative efforts between local officials and local law enforcement agencies."

The completion of ASP will result in a fully integrated law enforcement information sharing system throughout these counties. The Congressionally mandated funds will be awarded through the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, and the grant totals $2,483,750.

In a separate Congressionally mandated award for Ocean Springs totaling $496,750, the city of Ocean Springs will create an Emergency Operations Center and Public Safety Facility. The building will house the police and fire departments as well as the emergency operations center. The project will enhance public safety service for residents throughout the city.

Federal ruling has no effect on Mississippi's own 'No-call List'

THE SEA COAST ECHO

The ruling by a federal judge in Oklahoma City that the Federal Trade Commission overstepped its authority in creating a National Do Not Call List against telemarketers was in response to a lawsuit brought by telemarketers who challenged the list of consumers who do not want to receive solicitation calls.

The Mississippi Public Service Commission has received calls from both businesses and consumers wanting to know whether or not this federal court ruling will have any effect on the Mississippi "No-Call" List.

"The federal court ruling against the National List will have no effect on the Public Service Commissions' enforcement of the Mississippi "No-Call List", stated Southern District Commissioner and PSC Chairman Michael Callahan.

Mississippi consumers who signed up for the National List but not the Mississippi List will be affected by the federal court ruling. The Federal Trade Commission had stated they would make the Federal List available to states, however, they have advised that this process is "on-hold" at this present time.

"We will enforce the Mississippi "No-Call" Law starting October 1st. Investigation and enforcement of illegal telemarketing will depend on the detailed and accurate information provided to the Commission by the consumers. It is critical that consumers familiarize themselves with the complaint forms so that they know what information will be required to file a complaint. All complaints must be filed in writing," stated Commissioner Callahan.

Consumers may obtain a complaint form by going online at www.DSC.state.ms.us or by calling Commissioner Callahan's office, toll free, at 800-356-6429.

American Cancer Society seeks volunteers

Being diagnosed with breast cancer can be devastating, but having a friend who's been there can make a world of difference. The American Cancer Society Reach to Recovery program provides that friendship to newly diagnosed, breast cancer patients. The program will expand its reach with a training for new Reach to Recovery volunteers.

The American Cancer Society will train interested volunteers at its office at 417 Security Square in Gulfport on Oct. 18 at 9 a.m.

The American Cancer Society Reach to Recovery program matches volunteers who are breast cancer survivors with newly diagnosed breast cancer patients or anyone with a concern about breast cancer to help them meet the emotional, physical and cosmetic needs related to the disease and, its treatment. Reach to Recovery volunteers are carefully chosen and trained by the American Cancer Society. Volunteers must be at least one year post-treatment for breast cancer and meet the following criteria and be able to participate in ongoing training updates.

If you are a breast cancer survivor and are interested in becoming a Reach to Recovery volunteer, call 1.800.ACS.2345 or visit www.cancer.org.

DuPont DeLisle employees set best-ever safety record, work 229 days w/no injuries

THE SEA COAST ECHO
Employees at the DuPont DeLisle plant in Pass Christian exceeded their best-ever safety record Sunday, Sept. 28, by working their 229th consecutive day without a single workplace injury. A workplace injury is defined as any injury requiring medical treatment or greater, as defined by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

"This, by far, is the most significant safety achievement in our plant's history," said Plant Manager Pat Nichols. "Personally, I am so very proud of our team. They've worked extremely hard and diligently to reach this day, and every employee deserves a huge pat on the back."

"Reaching this milestone underscores our complete commitment to the safety and health of employees and the community," she noted. "The safety and health of employees and the community is one of the DuPont core values and it is our plant's number one priority. This record illustrates that," she said.

"The heart of this achievement, however," said Nichols, "is that not one DuPont employee or their family members have had to suffer the physical and emotional pain that an injury causes. This is what truly matters and makes this new record all the more meaningful."

Stephen Romito, chairman of the plant's Safety Activities Committee, a group of employees who continuously promote safe working practices and habits, echoed Nichols' comments. He said, "Exceeding 228 days without a DuPont employee being injured on-site is an important milestone for the DeLisle plant. By reaching this goal, we have worked over 1,000,000 hours injury-free. No injuries means no pain and suffering for employees, families and friends."

"Working injury-free improves both productivity and morale," said Romito. "It feels good to work injury-free! It's also beneficial to our community, since many DuPont employees are active at local schools, churches and other charitable organizations. The bottom line is that when we work safely and injury-free, we all benefit, employees, the community and our customers."

The previous record of 228 consecutive days without injury occurred during the 1995-96 time period. Prior to setting this new record, the plant also had worked some 212 consecutive days without an injury in 1981-82. During the past five years, the plant has achieved an average Total Recordable Rate (TRR) of less than 1.0 and currently has a TRR of .22. This compares to TRR measurements in chemical manufacturing plants of 4.2 and a 9.0 TRR in all of U.S. industry (2000 data). TRR is calculated on the number of OSHA recordable injuries divided by 200,000 work hours.

"What this means," said Nichols, "is that the Mississippi Gulf Coast is home to one of the nation's safest places to work."

The plant also has the distinction of being the first industrial manufacturing site in Mississippi to have achieved the Occupational Health and Safety Administration's STAR site designation. Awarded in 1983, the OSHA certification is based on voluntary efforts of industrial sites to comply with rigorous standards for employee safety and health.

The DuPont DeLisle, Miss., plant (www.dupont-delisle.com) is a major world producer of titanium dioxide (TiO<sub>2</sub>). The plant, which began operations in 1979 and employs approximately 1,000 persons, uses state-of-the-art technology in the manufacture of TiO<sub>2</sub>, a pigment used in paints, plastics, textiles, foods and other products as a whitening or brightening agent.

DuPont is a science company. Founded in 1802, DuPont puts science to work by solving problems and creating solutions that make people's lives better, safer and easier. Operating in more than 70 countries, the company offers a wide range of products and services to markets including agriculture, nutrition, electronics, communications, safety and protection, home and construction, transportation and apparel. In the Gulf region of the U.S., DuPont operates 10 manufacturing facilities from Alabama to Texas, employing about 4,700 employees.

FastAccess DSL service launched in Pearlington

Passage of State Broadband Bill makes new technology offer possible

THE SEA COAST ECHO
BellSouth recently announced that BellSouth® FastAccess DSL Service, a high speed, digital subscriber line Internet access service, is now available to residential and small business customers in Pearlington.

The expansion of BellSouth's FastAccess service is part of a $10 million investment in broadband technology in Mississippi during 2003. Rick Stewart, Regional Manager for BellSouth in Mississippi, said the new broadband legislation the Mississippi State Legislature passed earlier this year made the investment and technology offer possible. "This DSL deployment is a direct result of the Legislature's passage of the Mississippi Broadband Technology Development Act," Rick Stewart remarked.

"The Legislature did its part by creating a set of rules that give companies like BellSouth the certainty we need to place a greater emphasis on broadband technology. Now, at BellSouth we're doing our part by making this investment in Hancock County."

"We passed the Mississippi Broadband Technology Development Act because we believe investment in digital technology will help businesses grow and locate in all parts of our state including Amite County," said State Senator Scottie Cuevas. "BellSouth has demonstrated its commitment to our community by bringing broadband technology to Pearlington."

Utilizing state-of-the-art DSL technology, FastAccess works at speeds up to 50 times faster than standard dial-up service. Large data files such as audio files, research documents, product literature and patient records can be downloaded or transferred in seconds rather than minutes. Consumers can make travel reservations online, and small businesses can conduct electronic sales via the Internet in seconds.

"Our rural communities in Mississippi need a telecommunications infrastructure that can handle the demands of today's new technology," said State Representative Dirk Dedeaux. "With the deployment of DSL service in Pearlington BellSouth is playing a key role in the creation of that infrastructure."

BellSouth currently offers DSL through 116 of its 203 central offices. By the end of 2003, 100 percent of BellSouth's central offices in Mississippi will offer FastAccess DSL. Once this $10 million infrastructure investment is completed, the number of lines currently qualified for DSL - more than 500,000 - will substantially increase.

Consumers and small businesses interested in FastAccess can get more information online at www.fastaccess.com, or by calling 1-888-321-ADSL.

Internet Service Providers, competitive local exchange carriers and other wholesalers interested in purchasing BellSouth DSL service, should contact their BellSouth account executive.

Diamondhead Garden Club plans events for October

BY SUSAN HOLCOMB

Are you looking for something productive to do? Would you like to spend a day touring a beautiful estate with people you enjoy? What a deal the Diamondhead Garden Club has for you!

October is packed with Garden Club activities. The membership meeting will take place Oct. 15 at the Community Center at 10 a.m.

Our guest speaker is Judy Steckler, director of the Land Trust for the Mississippi Coastal Plain. Her topic is "Landowners' Options - Leaving a Legacy."

We will visit Longue Vue Oct. 22, leaving the Community Center parking lot promptly at 8:45. The estate is the home of the late Edgar Bloom Stern and his wife Edith, both of whom were philanthropists.

The home includes an incredible collection of antiques, both American and English, French and Oriental carpets, and British and Continental pottery. If architecture and antiques aren't your "cup of tea," perhaps the gardens will catch your attention. After the tour we will have lunch at Barreca's restaurant.

Activities do not end with October. We will host the Gulf Coast Council meeting Nov. 7. The Gulf Coast Council is the driving force behind the Spring Pilgrimage which we all enjoy every year. Would you like to be involved?

Please come to the meeting which will be held at the Community Center at 1:30 PM for more information. You can also call Marge Dieball (255-6159) or Mary Anne Ballard (255-5109).

Our yard of interest this month is tended by a new gardener, Tom Laudisi. Tom, his wife Donna, and their children moved to Diamondhead from Connecticut in 2000. Tom had mowed the grass and tended a few plants at their previous residence. Diamondhead clearly awakened his gardening talent.

It would seem that Tom doesn't meet a plant that doesn't thrive under his care. He attributes his success to hard work, at least an hour a day in the yard, and a bit of trial and error.

If he places a plant in one location and it doesn't grow as it should, he moves it to another. His back yard is full of hosta, ivy, caladiums, and impatiens. He's chosen plants which thrive in his shaded garden. Tom is certainly an inspiration to those of us who accept the challenges of gardening.

This summer I unintentionally opened a restaurant ... for deer. On four different occasions, my roses were eaten almost down to the canes. My attitude toward "Bambi" has become quite negative. Several of my husband's golfing friends suggested covering the roses with sheets every night. Thus far the deer are feasting elsewhere.

Another deer deterrent is a concentrate which is diluted and sprayed, "Hinder." Apparently I live on restaurant row for the deer of the area. My neighbors use "Hinder" with success.

Diamondhead's Yard of Interest for October goes to Tom and Donna Laudisi.

St. Clare Church brings back annual fair set Oct. 31-Nov. 2

After seven years, St. Clare Catholic Church in Waveland is bringing back its annual fair.

St. Clare's very first fair was held in 1953. The parishioners held the fair as a surprise for their pastor, Michael Costello. It was then held for 43 consecutive years.

Since an annual fair substantially helps raise money for the parish and it's many ministries, it was decided, this year, to bring the fair back.

"We've received a lot of encouraging comments from people when hearing that we are bringing back the old St. Clare fair. Many reminisce about going to the fair when they were young and are happy that we are bringing back a fair that is designed to entertain children," said Carlos Lozano, co-chairman of the fair.

All of the fun and excitement kicks off on Halloween night with Trick-or-Treating for chilsilent auctions, crafters, a white elephant booth, carnival rides, raffles, and lots of food, fun, prizes and surprises.

The fair will be held on the church grounds, Friday, Oct. 31, from 4 to 10 p.m.; Saturday, Nov. 1, from 11 a.m. - 11 p.m.; and on Sunday, Nov. 2, from noon to 6 p.m. Admission is free.

There are still spaces available for crafters; interested parties may call the church office for rental information.

Anyone wishing to make a donation for support of the fair may also call the office or simply send it to: St. Clare Catholic Church, P.O. Box 500, Waveland, MS. 39576. St. Clare Catholic Church is located at 236 South Beach Blvd. in Waveland. The church office telephone number is 228-467-9275.

Clark kicks off 'Promote the Vote'

Features "Vote in Honor of a Veteran" Initiative

Secretary of State Eric Clark today announced the start of "Promote the Vote," Mississippi's annual student mock election and voter education program. "Promote the Vote" is designed to instill the values of participating in our American democracy and to get young people involved in their government and the political process," Clark said. "This state election year we will also make an extra effort to recognize the contribution and sacrifice of our veterans that make our democracy possible."

Clark's office will conduct the statewide mock election on October 28 -- one week before the general election. Students will vote for Governor and Lieutenant Governor. "Promote the Vote" provides civic education curricula for grades K-12. The program also encourages 18 year-olds to register to vote, and all students to actively follow campaigns for public office and participate in program art and essay contests. All Mississippi school children -- whether they attend public, private, or church-related schools, or are home-schooled -- are eligible to participate.

TIME Magazine and the National Student/Parent Mock Election have recognized Clark's program as the best student voter education program in the United States. Mississippi has also been selected to take part in Yale University's Civic Engagement Project to help reverse the decline in voter participation among young people. Since "Promote the Vote" was started in 1996, enrollment has totaled 648,832. Any teacher interested in participating in "Promote the Vote" should call 601-359-6350 or 1-800-256-3494 and ask for "Promote the Vote," or visit the Secretary of State's website at www.sos.state.ms.us.

Saint Stanislaus senior Koger nominated for the Wendy's High School Heisman award

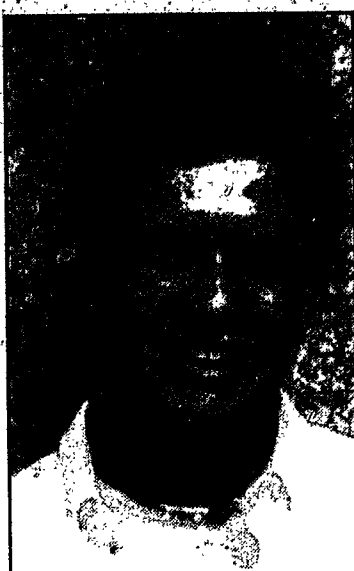

THE SEA COAST ECHO

St. Stanislaus senior, T. J. Koger, has been nominated for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award, according to Brother Ronald Hingle, SC, Principal.

Wendy's High School Heisman program is similar to the collegiate Heisman recognition program. This award honors the nation's top high school seniors who best exemplify a supreme "scholar-citizen-athlete."

T. J. Koger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Koger of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. He is enrolled in the school's Honor Program and is a three year academic letterman. He is a letterman on the varsity swim and golf teams, and is treasurer of the Key Club, a member of National Honor Society and Youth Legislature.

"We believe it's important to recognize our young men not just for what they do in the classroom or on the field, but their contributions to their community," said Brother Ronald. "The Wendy's High School Heisman program is a great way to spotlight, on a national level, just how special they are."

Now celebrating 10 years of commitment to youth and education, this program was created through a partnership between Wendy's, the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) and the Heisman Memorial Trust, in 1994.

"These students are truly in a league of their own," says Archie

Griffin, the only two-time winner of the prestigious Heisman Memorial Trophy and program spokesperson. "Each student nominated for the award has gone above and beyond expectations to help those in need, enhance their education and pursue their dreams."

Principals from approximately 24,000 high schools across the country were invited to nominate one male and one female student who fulfills the program requirements. Students are judged on academic and athletic achievements in addition to community service.

All nominees will be posted on the Wendy's High School Heisman website in early October. To track a student's progress or to find out more about the program please log on to www.wendyshighschool-heisman.com or call 1-800-244-5161.

The Wendy's High School Heisman program is comprised of five phases - Nomination, State Finalists, State Winners, National Finalists, and National Winners. Entries are initially evaluated by the scholastic review service, ACT Inc. during the State Finalist and State Winner phases and then passed on to a distinguished panel of judges including past Heisman Memorial Trophy recipients, and education, business and community leaders to elect the National Finalists and National Winners.

Saint Stanislaus College is a Catholic residency and day school for young men in grades 6-12. The school fosters character formation and integrates faith development within a curriculum which is primarily college preparatory.

Dempsey's

This space was to be used for a review of Dempsey's Restaurant however, you probably already know just how wonderful their food is, how great the service is and how reasonable their prices are. Now I would like to introduce to you the dynamic woman restaurateur, Dianne Hennessy owner of Dempsey's, here is her story.

"I started working in the restaurant business when I was eight years old. My parents, Andrew and Diane Marino, owned a catering business in New Orleans. Then when I was about twelve years old, my parents bought Jack Dempsey's in New Orleans on Poland Ave. This was the start of my real inspiration and interest in being a restaurateur. I began to wait tables, cook, and learn anything I could about the business. When I sit and think about it I owe a great deal to my parents since they taught me everything I know about being in business for my self and running a successful business.

When I was eighteen, I married, moved away from New Orleans, and had two children. Something brought me back to New Orleans though and I began once again to help out my parents and work at Jack Dempsey's Restaurant. I continued to work there for about two or three years until the first part of 2003 when I began to remodel and reconstruct a once gas station which would soon be known as Dempsey's restaurant on Coleman Ave. in Waveland.

When I began this remodeling process with my husband Reeb, little did I know what I was getting myself into. It took us about six months to get the major construction done to the point where we could begin the process of opening the restaurant. This was not an easy task either because many things went wrong. The restaurant flooded because of a plumbing problem. We had to tear down a brick wall. A large truck hit the awning outside the restaurant. It rained in the building through the ceiling. We went through construction crew after construction crew with no luck. To top everything off, the equipment that was ordered for the kitchen and bar was not all delivered and the pieces of equipment that were delivered were all broken. This incident alone set the opening back three weeks.

Opening Dempsey's took a lot of tenacity and a lot of support and help from my friends and family. Without their help, my dream of opening this business would not have been possible. I especially want to thank my dad, Andrew Marino, my husband, Reeb Hennessy, Chris Marino, my brother, Dorothy and Rob Smith, and all of the other countless people who helped me keep my sanity and stood by me through everything. We will have our grand opening on October 5, 2003. The restaurant opens at 11:00 am and will close at 9:00 pm. Be sure to stop by and listen to Bo and Dee who will be playing at 3:00 pm. Also take advantage of our specials for the day. Our specials include a free round of drinks at the bar and free draft beer all day long. We would also like to send a special invitation to all the cruisers for Cruisin' the Coast. Come and celebrate this day with us. Last, but certainly not least, I would also like to wish my daughter, Brittany Wolfe a very happy birthday on Sunday. With love from Mom, Mr. Reeb, Willie, and Zach." See you at Dempsey's!

Second annual E.C.O. Triathlon set for October 5 in Bay St. Louis

THE SEA COAST ECHO

The sunny shores of Bay St. Louis will be home to the 2nd Annual Earth Events E.C.O. Triathlon scheduled for Sunday, October 5. The E.C.O. Triathlon consists of a 2-mile kayak course, a 12-mile bike and a 3.1-mile run. Last year's event -- the first of its kind on the Mississippi Gulf Coast -- drew over 130 athletes from the region.

"The response was tremendous for a first-time event and we expect it to grow as word gets out," says triathlon co-organizer Megan Brennan. "We have the perfect location here in Bay St. Louis and Waveland. The scenery is beautiful, the course is flat and the water is relatively calm."

The triathlon course is designed to appeal to experienced and novice triathletes. The 2-mile kayak course begins and ends on the beach in Bay St. Louis, the bike portion extends down Beach Boulevard to Buccaneer State Park and back, and the 3.1-mile run traverses the beachside running path.

The E.C.O. Triathlon includes an adult competition with eight age groups, a relay competition and a youth competition with three age groups. The youth race, for age 12 and under, consists of a half-mile kayak, a 1-mile bike and a half-mile run.

Trophies will be awarded to the top overall male and female finishers and the top three finishers in each category. All participants will receive a race t-shirt and can take part in the post-race party on the beach. Local sponsors will provide food and beverages.

The triathlon is sponsored by Earth Events, an organization that specializes in educating people about the environment and healthy living through the arts and Da Beach House, the organization's for-profit partner.

"The E.C.O. Triathlon is the perfect venue for promoting and supporting Earth Events," said co-founder Colleen Read. "The E.C.O. stands for 'every child's opportunity' which goes along with our mission of promoting positive life experiences among young people, while inspiring them to be healthy, creative and confident."

The triathlon will take place in front of Da Beach House in Bay St. Louis at 604 S. Beach Boulevard at the Washington Street intersection. More details on the triathlon and the beach party will follow. For registration forms and other information contact Da Beach House by phone at 228-467-1108 or 228-467-9477 or at readtodd@hotmail.com.

IHL & Partners go on the road to inform parents about college $$

THE SEA COAST ECHO

IHL is going on the road to parents for the second consecutive year about financial aid. Commissioner of Higher Education, David Potter, described the IHL Financial Aid Programs planned for fall 2003.

"The financial aid application process is challenging to parents and their children," Potter said.

"We started a series of financial aid workshops last year for parents and have been asked to expand them this fall. Our partners on this initiative include Education Services Foundation, local chambers of commerce, legislators and Mississippi Affordable College Savings Program (MACS)," added Potter.

The format for the program includes a presentation of the sources of financial aid with information about the federal financial aid process, a presentation about the scholarships available from the State Office of Financial Aid and information about MPACT and MACS.

There are at least $60 billion dollars available in grants, scholarships and low-interest loans available annually throughout the nation to help families afford a college education. In Mississippi, the state will provide $35 million in financial aid during the 2003-2004 academic year. A college education is essential for the global, knowledge-based economy in which we live.

TEN YEARS AGO

September 23, 1993 - Father William J. Kelly, SVD, is bringing home the Family Award for the 1993 Heart Patient of the Year to his "family" at St. Augustine Seminary in Bay St. Louis. The Heart Patient of the Year awards program is a nationwide cardiovascular disease prevention project that encourages individuals to take on the tough challenges following heart attack. The program honors a winner, a family winner and three honorable mentions each year.

Members of one outstanding family are commended for supporting their heart attack survivor and modifying their own risk factors for heart disease. After having bypass surgery last January, Father Kelly lost 73 pounds, going from a size 46 waist to a 36. The once inactive priest now walks five miles a day, exercises with weights and eats a low cholesterol diet.

The deadline for businesses to sign up to participate in the Red Ribbon Christmas 1993, sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce is Friday, October 1, at 4 p.m. "Throughout the Christmas season, we will be doing activities to promote the Red Ribbon Christmas," said Cindy Vernon, Chamber of Commerce executive director.

'Cats hope to get back into win column after heartbreaking 31-27 loss to Hinds

PRCC out to avenge last season's 23-20 setback in Poplarville

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Pearl River Community College hopes to get back on a winning track following last week's heartbreaking 31-27 MACJC South Division loss to Hinds when non-division rival Itawamba hosts the Wildcats for its 2003 Homecoming game Saturday in Fulton.

Last week, PRCC overcame a 12-point deficit late in the fourth quarter to take a short-lived 27-24 edge over the Eagles in Poplarville only to see Hinds' Chris Hume take a cross-field lateral from Almonzo Banks and return it 95 yards for the game-winning score with 1:25 left. Pearl River dropped to 3-1 overall and 1-1 in division play, while Hinds improved to 3-1 and remained undefeated in league play at 2-0. Itawamba, on the other hand, picked up its first win of the season last Thursday in Scooba when it pounded North Division rival East Mississippi on the road to improve to 1-3 and 1-0.

"We were our own worst enemy against Hinds," said second-year Wildcat head coach Tim Hatten. "Three turnovers on our first three possessions ended up with us being down 14-0 right of the bat."

"You can't do that kind of thing against anybody, much less a team of Hinds' caliber."

A year ago, the Indians overcame a 13-3 halftime deficit to pounce the Wildcats in Poplarville when place kicker Chris Shoup who is back on board this season booted a 33-yard field goal with 1:27 left to secure a 23-20 victory. Itawamba struggled in the early-going in last year's battle, as Wildcat defenders held the Indians to only 71 total yards in the first half, including a mere eight yards in the first period. But the second half was quite a different story, as the Indians rebounded with a 265-yard offensive effort to rally for the three-point win. Itawamba boasts the league's fifth-best defense despite losing three straight to open the season. ICC struggled offensively the first three weeks, losing 6-3 to Mississippi Gulf Coast in the season opener in Perkinston, followed by a 9-6 setback to Hinds in Fulton and a 38-6 loss to perennial powerhouse Northwest to open its North Division schedule Sept. 20.

Last week, the Indians' offense came alive in its blow out in Scooba.

"The Topps (Ken) guy at quarterback really came into his own last week. He is a very athletic guy that can cause problems for any defense," said Hatten. "He stepped up and made some big plays in their East Mississippi win."

Pearl River's offense tops the league, averaging 381.5 yards a game through four outings, including a state-best 246.8 yards per game passing and 134.8 yards rushing.

Itawamba averages and even 300 yards a game (94 pass, 206 rush) behind a talented flock of runners led by sophomore Don Rich.

Rich has averaged 126.8 yards a game second-best in the MACJC while freshman quarterbacks Topps and Dusty Goodwin have combined to complete 39 of 77 passes for 376 yards through four games. Topps is second on the team in rushing with 209 yards on 24 carries in three games. In addition, he sports the state's third-best pass efficiency rating at 143.2 despite completing 17 of only 26 throws (two interceptions) in three outings.

Topps, a freshman from Shannon, accounted for 224 total yards in the win over the Lions (game-high 139 rushing, 85 passing), while running for one TD and passing for three others.

Wildcat quarterback Anthony Johnson, the state's leading passer, struggled against Hinds but still leads the league with 916 yards in four games.

Against the Eagles, the sophomore transfer from Butler CC (Kan.) completed 17 of 43 passes with two interceptions for 301 yards and two touchdowns.

Nearly half of Johnson's passing yardage came off two plays when he zipped an 80-yard TD pass to Larry Kendrick of Lake Wales, Fla., in the fourth quarter, as well as a 61-yard completion to Raymond Dukes of Hattiesburg High to set up a score in the first half. In addition, Johnson led all rushers in the contest with 68 yards on 11 carries.

Defensively, the Indians are led by sophomore line-backer LeMarcus Rowell, who tops the state in tackles with 41 solos and nine assists, while being in a three-way tie for third in the league in fumbles caused with three. Defensive end Eddie White has a team-high five quarterback sacks (third-best in the league); while defensive back Randy Shumpert boasts a team-high three pass interceptions.

Shoup earned MACJC Special Teams Player of the Week in the Indians' loss to Hinds, as the sophomore from Shannon booted field goals of 39 and 42 yards and averaged 46.6 yards on eight punt attempts.

LAST YEAR'S GAME...

A year ago, the Indians overcame a 13-3 halftime deficit to pounce the Wildcats in Poplarville when place kicker Chris Shoup who is back on board this season booted a 33-yard field goal with 1:27 left to secure a 23-20 victory.

Itawamba struggled in the early-going in last year's battle, as Wildcat defenders held the Indians to only 71 total yards in the first half, including a mere eight yards in the first period. But the second half was quite a different story, as the Indians rebounded with a 265-yard offensive effort to rally for the three-point win.

THE PRCC-ICC RIVALRY...

Saturday's match up marks the 36th time the two schools have met on the gridiron in a rivalry that dates back to 1953. Pearl River leads the series with 21 wins compared to 12 losses. There has been one tie in the rivalry.

The Wildcats won the first match up with the Indians 20-0 and went on to eventually share the state championship with Hinds. In 1963, in one of PRCC's 15 state championship seasons the two teams battled to a 12-12 deadlock, marking the only blemish on PRCC's record that season.

Itawamba has won three state titles (1975, 1977, 1990), while Pearl River last won a MACJC title in 1976.

THIS WEEK'S GAMES...

All MACJC games this week are scheduled for Saturday, including four Homecoming match ups. Itawamba will host Pearl River at 3 p.m. in Fulton for its Homecoming (non-division game), while Northeast travels to Coahoma in Clarksdale in hopes of spoiling the Tigers' Homecoming (North Division game). East Central celebrates its Homecoming against Copiah-Lincoln in Decatur (South Division game), while Holmes hosts Northwest in Goodman for Homecoming (North Division game). Other games include East Mississippi traveling to Mississippi Delta in Moorhead (North Division game), Mississippi Gulf Coast traveling to Hinds in Raymond (South Division game), and Jones traveling to Southwest in Summit (South Division game).

Bay sweeps pass in V-ball; SSC X-country wins Biloxi Meet; SSC/OLA make waves

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
Staff Writer

The Bay High Lady Tigers swept the Pass High Lady Pirates in high school volleyball action on Tuesday, September 30th at the Wilmer Seymour Gymnasium 2-0. The scores of the game were 15-2 and 15-3.

Bay High head coach Lis Bosarge stated, "This was a good game for us. We handled our responsibilities in the game. The players have been working on reducing errors. They had clean hits, passes and sets."

Tori Lansaw led the team with 12 points and 4 kills. Tamara Reed tallied 10 points and 6 assists.

Next up for the Lady Tigers is Mercy Cross on Thursday, October 2nd in Biloxi. This will be the final game in division play for both teams.

The St. Stanislaus Cross Country team participated in the Biloxi Invitational on Saturday, September 27. The Rocks won the meet that featured 14 teams. SSC scored 60 points followed by Ocean Springs with 63, Biloxi 100, and D'Iberville with 101 points.

Kyle Lewis has been on fire so far this season for the Rocks. He was the top individual performer in the meet finishing in 16:34 which was over one minute ahead of the second place finisher. Lewis has won three of the four races he has participated in this season.

Troy Johnston was second on the team and third overall with a time of 17:45 followed by Bobby Nilson and Kody Cannon who were 7th and 13th overall, respectively.

SSC head coach Steve Flannery commented, "The meet was closer than I had anticipated. Ocean Springs did very well as did several other teams. This is the first time that we have won this meet since I have been coaching the last six years. I thought our times were good considering that it was one of the hottest race days we have encountered. Our next meet is the Catholic High Invitational in baton Rouge which is a highly competitive meet on October 11th. I am eager to see how we compete in that meet."

On September 20th, the SSC/OLA swim team competed in a triangle meet at the SSC pool. SSC won the boys division with 114 points followed by Hancock with 108 and Pearl River Central with 31 points.

The Rocks won the 100-yard butterfly with Sherman Necaise and the 500-yard freestyle with Ben Rader. Christian Walter took top honors in the 100-yard breaststroke. The SSC 200-yard freestyle relay team took home top honors.

For the Hancock boys, J.J. Averill won the 200-yard individual medley and the 10-yard backstroke. Donaldson won the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle races and Ryan Chauvin won the 200-yard freestyle.

In the girls division, OLA won the meet with 111 points followed by Pearl River Central with 97 points and Hancock with 36 points.

OLA won the 200-yard medley relay and the 400-yard freestyle relay. Alyssa Walter set a new school record in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:21.25. She also won the 50-yard freestyle.

Elissa Kergosien won the 100-yard freestyle while her sister, Laura, won the 500-yard freestyle. Amy Lamb took top honors in the 100-yard backstroke.

On September 25th, the SSC/OLA swim team defeated Mercy Cross in dual meet action. On the boys side, SSC racked up 118 points as they placed first in each event. OLA completed the sweep of the Crescents with 114 points to the Lady Crusaders' 31 points. OLA won every race except the 200-yard freestyle.

Mississippi Ammunition Plant at the National Space Technology Laboratories to comply with clean air standards by July 31. Wayne Anderson, Southern Air Emissions Section coordinator at the State Department of Natural Resources Bureau of Pollution Control in Jackson, said Tuesday that repeated fires in pollution control equipment on the roof of the plant have necessitated a partial shutdown of the devices.

FORTY YEARS AGO

October 3, 1963 - Leo W. Seal, Jr., of Bay St. Louis has been named fifth president of Hancock Bank, succeeding his father who died last week, while L.P. Sweatt of Gulfport, band director for 30 years, was elevated to chairman of the board, a post held by the late president.

A property tax rate of 44 mills was set Monday by the Bay St. Louis Mayor and Commission Council. This is 1 1/2 mills more than last year and residents of Waveland and the county area outside Bay St. Louis making up the separate municipal school district will share all of it.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

October 2, 1953 - Sheriff

John Egloff said yesterday he will accept evidence against the county line so-called "Juke Joints" and present it for prosecution. The sheriff ordered the places on the Hancock-Pearl River County line, closed at noon yesterday. Constable Eli Alsbrook left the courthouse to put the orders into effect. Maj. General W.P. Wilson, commander of the Mississippi National Guard, was enroute to Bay St. Louis at the time. He conferred Wednesday night with the Sheriff and District Attorney. And indignation meeting of ministers, held at Picayune last Saturday, started the current drive against the places after it was revealed that investigators bought package liquor and beer at these places. The ministers petitioned Gov. Hugh White who sent Sheriff Egloff a letter demanding the places be closed or else the National Guard would be sent in to close them. "I'm in favor of cooperating 100%" the Sheriff said. "I've always been for padlocking these places. And if these investigators will give me the evidence they say they have, I'll do something about it." District Boyce Holleman whose job is to prosecute any such cases said, "I'll cooperate with Gov. White 100%."

SIXTY YEARS AGO

October 1, 1943 - In an impressive ceremony at the Woodman of the World Hall on Friday of last week, officers of the Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Post 139, were installed with Henry Capedon, past commander as installing officer. Officers installed were: Frank J. Cassidy, commander; Bryan Graham, adjutant; and William Green, service officer. Roy Baxter, Jr. and Lynn Rutherford were received as new members. -Seaman First Class Bruce Barton Bourgeois, U.S.N.R., 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bourgeois has been honorably discharged from the Navy because of worry over his mother's health. His parents had not heard from him since September 10 when he wrote just before embarkation from New York.

Ever since the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor when he was 12-years-old, he wanted to get in the fight and a year later hitchhiked it to San Diego, California during the Christmas holidays, but was turned down by the Navy because he could not produce a birth certificate.

On May 28, 1943, two months before his 14th birthday, Bruce went to Gulfport with his parents permission was inducted in the Naval Reserve.

He weighed 190 pounds and was 6 feet 2 inches tall. In his four months of service he trained at Bainbridge, Maryland, Little Creek, Virginia, and Brooklyn, New York, where he was assigned to a ship. He was rated a good sailor by his commanding officer and he loved the sea, but his father said that though he was aboard a ship for combat duty, he could not face the unsure repatriation.

With two other sons in the service, Kenneth in the Army Air Force and W.L. in the Merchant Marine, Mr. and Mrs. Bourgeois have removed one of the three service starts and are awaiting for the return of their youngest son.

Bay-Waveland seventh graders attend Duke University Talent Identification Program

43 seventh graders from Bay-Waveland Middle School were selected to participate in the Duke University Talent Identification Program. This program is open to seventh grade students who scored at the 95th percentile, or higher, on the Mississippi Curriculum Test in May, 2003.

The talent search provides an opportunity for highly able students to pursue an above level testing experience. Once candidates are identified, they are invited to complete either the SAT or ACT.

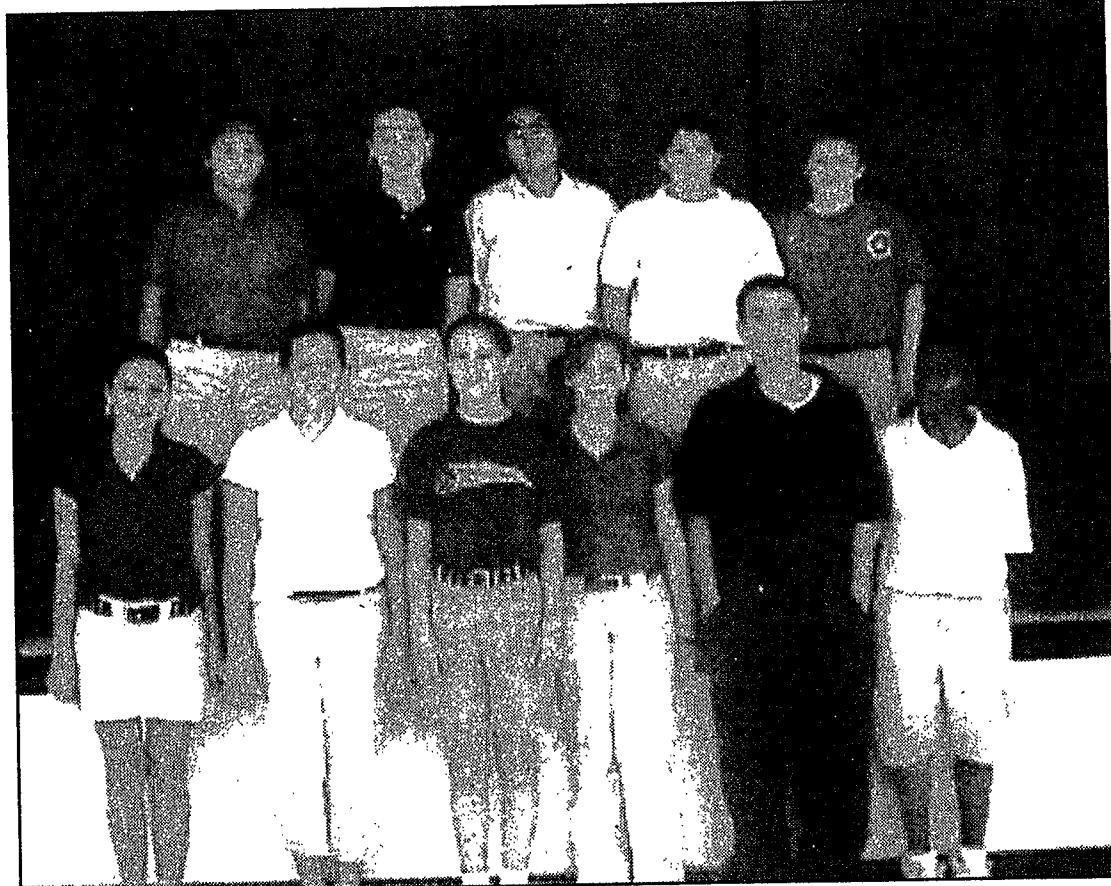

The Talent Identification Program then provides the participants with comparative information concerning their academic abilities and resources for unique educational opportunities. Through the sharing of information, programming, recognition ceremonies, and the special attention that is inherent in the Talent Search identification process, Tip offers supplementation of local efforts to motivate, enrich, and academically challenge some of the country's brightest young people.

The following Bay-Waveland Middle School students were selected for this honor:

Angela Hood, Hope Walley, Jessica Oliver, Veronica Zingarelli, Claudio Irias, Decedrio Lyons, Nina

Parents of gifted children are invited to attend Family Night on Thursday, October 9, 2003. The professors of gifted education from Mississippi University for Women, Dr. Suzanne Bean, Dr. Barbara Hunt, and Dr. Bob Seney will lead a session for parents on The Eight Grips of Gifted Students while the Tupelo Public Schools Challenge staff will meet with students.

BSLLT to present 'How to Succeed..'

Musical comedy set
Oct. 16-26 at John F.
Holmes Playhouse

Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will present the musical comedy "How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying" Oct. 16-18 and 24-26.

This Tony award-winning play tells the story of J. Pierrepont Finch, who is more than just an ambitious window washer.

He works his way up the corporate ladder by the book — not the book that the executives would have written — but a quirky little tome entitled "How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying."

The book teaches Finch how to advance quickly through the ranks of the World Wide Wicket Company while exploiting a precarious relationship with the president, Mr. Biggley, who has eyes for new secretary and former "cigarette girl" from the local gentlemen's club, Hedy La Rue.

Along the way Finch faces an expected enmity from Biggley's nephew, Bud Frump, who sees Finch as an obstacle to his own ambitions.

Unexpectedly, Finch encounters romance (something the book tells him nothing about) with the charming ingenue, Rosemary. Even with his book, the young man seems to make his way to the top astride a wobbly tight rope. If he misses a step, he could bring himself, Rosemary, and maybe the whole company crashing down.

Producer Scott Darrah and director Jay Coker lead a capable production team including assistant director Michelle Kessling, choreographer Cheryl Grace and musical director Rev. Scotty Hardway.

"How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying" features music and lyrics by Frank Loesser and book by Abe Burrows, Jack Weinstock and Willie Gilbert based on the novel by Shepherd Mead. Loesser and Burrows are also famously known as the writers who brought us Guys and Dolls.

Show times are at 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday with a special matinee at 2 p.m. on Oct. 26.

Admission is $12 for adults and $7 for students 17 and below. Tickets will be available at the door on the night of the show.
